yes * B. Representatives from the Director of Central Intelligence, Office of Public Affairs viewed the 16mm motion picture film entitled, CIA and Its People. This production will replace the multi-media 15-projector slide show that is currently shown during recruitment efforts. This project was a major motion picture production which took the Office of Logistics, ~~Printing and Photography Division (OL/P&PD)~~ six to seven months to produce. The Office of Public Affairs representatives were very impressed with the 16 minute film, which is scheduled to be shown to the Chief of Public Affairs on 10 March.

moves [] Despite severe equipment failures on Saturday, the job was completed by Sunday and ready for Monday morning delivery.

* D. Priority work for the Office of Current Production and Analytic Support (CPAS) has been significant this past reporting period. The Office of Logistics, Printing and Photography Division (OL/P&PD) support included:

1. Photography support for prints and vugraphs of three charts and a map of Latin America which required a P&PD representative to be called in at 0130 hours on Friday, 28 February to have the job ready for pick-up by 0730 that morning.

2. Printing and delivery of 25,000 additional copies of the English language version of the book Soviet Acquisition of Militarily Significant Western Technology: An Update by 10 March. This book, also known as The White Paper, details the Soviet Union's effort to acquire Western technology both legally and illegally for use in its weapons and military equipment projects.

E. A request was received from the Special Security Center, Office of Security (SSC/OS) for the Office of Logistics, Printing and Photography Division (OL/P&PD) to expedite the printing of 60,000 sets of a 6-part NCR form. This form will replace two forms presently in use by OS to clear Agency contractor personnel. Since supplies of the two forms were running low a part of the order was delivered to OS on 24 February 1986.

G. Members of the Office of Logistics, Printing and Photography Division (OL/P&PD) are in the process of videotaping several locations to be used by the Director of Logistics at the upcoming International Logistics Conference. This videotape has a due date of 10 March and will run about 30-45 minutes. []
